British Communique Charges Nazi Airmen Committed "Indiscriminate Bombardment of Whole City" In Important Industrial Midlands, as Berlin Exultantly Declares the Ancient Town Where Lady Godiva Achieved Fame Was Shelled "In Retaliation" for British Assaults on Munich Night Hitler Spoke There

ARMADA OF FIVE HUNDRED GERMAN BOMBERS REPORTED TO HAVE PARTICIPATED IN ATTACK

German night raiders inflicted a toll of about 1,000 killed and wounded in a town-smashing assault on Coventry, in the English industrial Midlands, a British communique announced today, charging that Nazi airmen committed "indiscriminate bombardment of the whole city."

In Berlin, Nazis exultantly declared that the ancient English city, where Lady Godiva once rode naked on horseback through the town as engulfed in "an ocean of flames."

An armada of 500 German bombers carried out the attack. Nazi quarters said, sweeping the city with a deluge of 30,000 incendiary bombs and 1,000,000 pounds of high explosives.

Hitler's high command said officially that the raid was "in retaliation" for British raids on Munich the night Hitler spoke there last week. Today the town lay in smoldering ruins, with uncounted townspeople still entombed in mountainous heaps of rubble. Many fires were reported still burning this morning and firemen were working against overwhelming odds. The city's 14th century cathedral, with its 303-foot spire was among the ruins.

Observers said it was the worst attack on any British city—excluding London—since the aerial siege of Britain began.

"The city suffered very seriously" and the people bore their ordeal with great courage," a communique by the London Ministry of Home Security announced.

The Germans said 20 great fires were left raging in the city of 190,000, where the Morris Bristol Rover and Napier motor works and the General Electric plant were said to be situated. The city is about 95 miles from London.

Berlin's millions too felt the terror of death from night skies as RAF raiders attacked the German capital in the heaviest way thus far, setting countless roofs afire, killing four Germans and wrecking an apartment building.

REVOLT IS SAID TO HAVE BROKEN OUT IN RUMANIA

Budapest, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—The Hungarian press displayed today a revolt in the ranks of Rumanian Iron Guardists in which one person was said to have been killed and seven injured at Bucharest.

The reports, filtering through strict Rumanian censorship, followed publication of an announcement from Bucharest that three high ranking members of the Iron Guard had been expelled.

The revolt was said to have been directed against the Iron Guard leader, Horia Sima.

The revolt, the press reports said, grew partly out of a severe economic crisis in Rumania, failure of many Iron Guardists to get government posts and the entrance of German army units into the country despite the stern nationalistic precepts of the founder, the late Corneliu Codreanu.

Disaffected factions reportedly attempted the putsch at Guardist headquarters Tuesday night, claiming that Sima, who also is vice premier, must be ousted because he had departed from Guardist principles to become Premier General Antonescu's servant.

Besieged Town from Dusk to Dawn Described As Being Similar to a Scene Out of Hades

Coventry, England, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—Coventry was like a scene out of Hades between dusk and dawn when German raiders dumped their bombs in ceaseless relays.

A full moon shone but its brilliance was dimmed by a pall of smoke and the glare of fire from burning buildings.

There were at least 1,000 dead and injured, numberless victims were buried under vast piles of wreckage, fires licked through the town and the 14th century cathedral with its 303-foot spire was but one of many buildings in ruins.

Scarcely a street escaped the pounding of the raiders. It was the worst continuous attack experienced by any city—including

Song Writer of Note Who Died Obscure and Broken in Spirit, Elected to Hall of Fame

Stephen Collins Foster. Composer of Never-to-be-Forgotten Ballads, Including "Old Black Joe", First Musician Among America's Immortals

RECEIVES 86 VOTES

BY TOBY WYANT
New York, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—A song writer who died penniless, obscure and broken in spirit at the age of 38 has just been elected to the hall of fame.

A commemorative tablet and book honoring his memory will be placed among those of 72 other great Americans next spring.

The name on it will be "Stephen Collins Foster."

He's the first musician ever named one of America's immortals.

He wrote down-to-earth folk songs, easy-to-sing songs. He wrote them to pay the rent, to buy a few meals. And for most of them, he got only a few dollars each.

SERIOUS BREAKS IN RANKS OF THE C. I. O. REPORTED

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—A serious break in the ranks of the C. I. O. loomed today as the labor organization's executive board met to prepare for the national C. I. O. convention which opens here next Monday.

The first indication of a rift came last night when Frank Rosenbaum of Chicago and Murray Weinstein of New York, both vice presidents of the powerful Amalgamated Clothing Workers, announced they had refused to serve on convention committees "in protest against the appointment of committee chairman by John L. Lewis," C. I. O. president.

Another development was the announcement by Sidney Hillman (Turn to Page Thirteen)

STRIKERS AT MIDLAND BACK TEMPORARILY

Midland, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—Strikers at the Crucible Steel Company plant here, impressed by a plea that they return to work in the interests of the national defense program, voted today on a proposal to do so pending adjustment of grievances.

The plan was reached at a conference among federal and state labor commissioners and company and union officials after SWOC international officers had urged local unionists to resume work on defense orders.

MILLIS IS NAMED TO THE NLRB

President Roosevelt Nominates Chicago Educator And Economist to Five Year Term on Important Commission Taking the Place Vacated by Chairman J. Warren Madden Who is Appointed to be Judge of Court of Claims

SENATE CONFIRMATION TO START MACHINERY

Washington, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt nominated Harry A. Millis, Chicago educator and economist, today to a five-year term on the National Labor Relations Board taking the place vacated by Chairman J. Warren Madden.

The president also submitted to the senate a nomination for Madden to be a judge of the United States court of claims.

Millis, 67, was a member of the labor board before it was reconstituted and given greater powers under the Wagner act in 1935. He is expected in some quarters to cooperate with board member William M. Leiserson in the latter's program for changes in staff and procedure.

Edwin S. Smith is the third member of the board to be named today. Owen D. Young was to head a three-member board to be assigned a broad study of transportation problems.

Senate confirmation will start board machinery grinding, again on cases which could not be decided by Smith and Leiserson. A third member was necessary to cast the deciding vote on cases in which they were deadlocked.

When Leiserson was named to head a year ago it was understood that his job was to do a house cleaning.

Subsequent testimony before a house committee disclosed that Leiserson was balked in his efforts on at least one occasion by Madden and Smith.

Millis also worked both with Smith on the old labor board and with Leiserson. During the time Leiserson was chairman of the railway mediation board Millis was frequently called on to serve as referee in disputes over interpretation of employee contracts.

GREEN HINTS THE A. F. L. IS READY TO TALK PEACE

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, kept a tight lip today on any direct talk of peace with the Congress of Industrial Organizations, but hinted that his followers were ready for settlement.

At the same time Green who arrived last night to prepare for the AFL convention opening Monday, approved the predicted appointment of Dr. Harry A. Millis, Chicago economist, to the National Labor Relations Board.

Refusing point blank to answer any question on his attitude on the AFL's attitude toward peace, the C. I. O. headed by John L. Lewis, Green said in an interview, "I may discuss the problem in making of the way."

SPAIN OUSTING AMERICAN PRESS

Madrid, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—All American correspondents in Spain were forbidden today to send out news dispatches beginning next Monday in reprisal for what officials said was American refusal to allow the Spanish official news agency, EFE, to operate in the United States.

(EFE pronounced "A-fay" is the foreign service of the official news agency, El Financiero.)

The ban embraces the Associated Press, the United Press, the New York Times and the Chicago Tribune.

The above newspapers and agencies mentioned are those with registration, it said.

TWO MORE SHIPS IN CONVOY CLAIMED SAFE

London, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—An Admiralty communique said today that two more ships of the convoy attacked by a German raider Nov. 5 in the Atlantic were safe, making a total of 32 safe out of 34.

It added that so far as it knew, four ships were sunk by the raider and another was set on fire by planes and abandoned.

Germany claimed last week the entire convoy was sunk.

One vessel still is unaccounted for, it said.

Nazi Plan to Absorb Contested Borderland Of Lorraine Seen in Order to Expel French

Expatriation From District Apparently Assumes Grand Proportions With Actual Start Dating Back To Days Following Fall Of Paris

BY LLOYD LEBRANS
Washington, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—German's expulsion of French-speaking residents from France's province of Lorraine was regarded as one more step in Chancellor Hitler's plan to absorb that long-contested borderland in his greater Reich.

If the French are being repatriated by Germans from the Ruhr valley, as reported in informed circles in Vichy, it may also mean that persistent British bombing of Germany's highly industrialized Ruhr valley has been effective to a degree not hitherto admitted by Berlin.

Berlin left Vichy recently it was widely reported that the R. A. F. had been making it so hot for the Ruhr that many Germans were moving across the border and taking over homes of French refugees who had not yet returned to the occupied region. Wholesale expulsion of French from Lorraine would provide more homes for bomb-shy Germans from the Ruhr, and at the same time enable Hitler to "Germanize" Lorraine thoroughly.

Although the expatriation of French from Lorraine apparently has not assumed grand-scale proportions, the actual start of this German program dates back to the days immediately following the fall of France. Before it left, unoccupied France at the end of the summer between 20,000 and 25,000 French, expelled from Lorraine, had arrived in the vicinity of Lyons.

All reported they first had been notified they could remain in Lorraine if they became German citizens. Within a few days, however, they were informed that since Lorraine was to be repatriated, but the new, said a second wave of French, expelled from Lorraine, had arrived in the vicinity of Lyons.

Man Who Threatened President Sentenced
Washington, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—A two to six year prison sentence was imposed on Edward Desmond Blount for threatening the life of President Roosevelt, the court announced today that the punishment should serve as an example to others.

"These are difficult times and make the offense more grievous than in peace time," said Justice F. Dickinson. Letts in federal court as he sentenced the 30-year-old ex-census bureau clerk, who pleaded guilty.

Blount's attorney pleaded that the young man had been found by a psychiatrist to be emotionally unstable and a constitutional psychopath. Secret service agents testified that Blount had made threatening filthy and obscene remarks about the president in addition to threatening to kill him at the first opportunity.

The defendant's father, a retired government attorney, heard only once passed.

GREEKS CLAIM ADVANCES ALONG 100-MILE FRONT

Athens, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—Destruction of two Italian divisions, presumably totaling about 20,000 men was claimed by the Athens radio today and advisers from the Albanian frontier credited Greeks with successes in all sectors.

Previous reports had mentioned the destruction of only one division, but the new, said a second was destroyed while seeking to "cut the ties."

The Greek army has taken the initiative along the entire 100-mile battlefield from the Isonzo Sea to the Yugoslav border and is driving the Italians back everywhere, the radio declared.

ROME REPORT DIFFERS

Rome, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—The High Command reported today that 15 planes of French, British and Polish type, used by the Greek in force, had been downed yesterday in violent action on the Greek battlefield during which Italian aircraft were said to have blasted at objectives behind the enemy lines.

At the same time the Italians identified as a battleship of the Raminelli class the Greek warship.

CRITICAL STAGE IN RELATIONS

Expulsion of More Than 100,000 French-Speaking Residents of Nazi-Occupied Alsace-Lorraine Draws Protest With Authorities Adding to Friction by Cutting Off Passes to Travelers From Occupied Zone

URGENT SESSIONS OF CABINET SUMMONED

Vichy, France, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—Vice Premier Pierre Laval was reported to be enroute to Paris today to attempt to stave off a definite break with Germany.

French-German relations have reached a critical stage as a result of the expulsion of more than 100,000 French-speaking residents of Nazi-occupied Alsace-Lorraine. Disputes from Paris said German authorities had added to the friction by cutting off passes to travelers from the occupied to travelers from the occupied to the unoccupied zone.

The French government already has filed a strong protest with the German ambassador commission over the expulsion. Urgent cabinet sessions have been summoned for today and tomorrow.

"There is nothing to indicate that the policy of collaboration for the peace of new Europe," developed in talks between Laval and Adolf Hitler last month is dead but the policy thus received its first public check.

In stopping travel from the occupied to the unoccupied zones, the Germans were reported as saying, that only "extremely exceptional" requests for passes would be honored.

Marshal Philippe Petain chief of the French state, planned to make an official trip to Lyon Monday to greet the Alsace-Lorraine refugees.

Meanwhile, French police in the occupied zone arrested 871 militiamen, Communist Paris dispatches said, closing 35 establishments printing subversive tracts.

After officially protesting the German expulsion action yesterday, the French stood pat awaiting the next German move.

New York, Nov. 15.—(A.P.)—A kiss of death from a one-time St. Louis beauty who swore to "get even" for a beating given her, signaled the end of ex-convict Ed Murray's fighting. When fighting came into the bathroom, she threw her arms around him and kissed him.

The detectives closed in quickly, but Murray was faster on the day and fired five shots. None took effect. The detectives blazed away and Murray fell at their feet, six slugs in his body.

Cole Hill

Cole Hill, Nov. 11—Miss Nellie Wentworth was a Warren visitor, Tuesday.

Post Master Harold McConnell of Torpedo was here on business Tuesday.

Miss Doris Covell of Ross Hill was here Saturday visiting with relatives. Miss Covell is now attending high school at Youngsville.

The hunting season here is now open for killing small game. The rabbits are not so plentiful here as they used to be several years ago. In those days they could be seen on moonlight nights, eating vegetables in the farmers' yards here close to the farmers' houses.

Seth Holmes of Garlano was here, Friday, looking after the snow fences.

The snow that fell here Wednesday morning stayed on the ground till Sunday. It made good tracking snow for the hunters.

The warm rain Sunday morning melted the snow, however.

The Youngsville high school students who attend from this place are having a holiday today. It being Armistice Day.

The Cole Hill school and other schools in Pittsfield township are keeping open today, however.

Harold McConnell and son Henry of Torpedo were here on business today.

Miss Mary Debnar who is working in Warren was a weekend guest here at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ahbozek.

A deer ran into Steve Bosko's car on the Davy Hill road last night. The deer was killed and the car was damaged.

AMERICA GOING BACK TO WORK

Here's an editorial, written by Willis Thornton for NEA and the Times-Mirror, that offers the most encouraging outlook on business prospects that has been submitted for many months:

The balloon called "Boom" is filling rapidly, and tugging nervously at its mooring ropes. America is going back to work.

After 10 years of fruitless struggle to achieve that, the world has suddenly thrust forward a situation that achieved it for us. Jobs are at last beginning to seek the man in the higher brackets of skill. In the Cleveland area, manufacturers are beginning to bid against one another for skill.

This has not yet gotten down to the rank and file of unskilled labor, yet the American Federation of Labor is confident that it soon will, and advances the possibility that by the end of 1941 as many as 7,500,000 of the present unemployed may be at work. Up to 4,000,000 will be directly needed in the expanding defense industries. That will give work to another 2,000,000 in non-defense and transport. The military will remove another 1,500,000 men from the labor market. That would leave only 1,000,000 unemployed, at the end of 1941.

This is a pretty picture, and we hope it's a true one. But like all pictures, it is only on the surface. What does it mean?

It means that the United States is being driven to adopt the kind of economy Germany, Italy and Japan adopted by choice—that is, an economy in which a major part of the country's labor energy is diverted into armament regardless of cost or relation to "normal economy."

Ninety-nine of 100 Americans of both parties agree that we have no choice. Ninety of that 99 will bask in the sunshine of this new-found "prosperity." We might as well enjoy it, for "what can't be cured must be endured," and it might as well be enjoyed to boot, if possible.

But some time this emergency, like all emergencies, must end. The men will come back from the training camps some day; the shell plants and armor plate mills will close.

Not only government, but every person, especially those in positions of responsibility on whose decisions will hang the jobs of others, must begin to hatch plans for peacetime production that can replace that of war preparedness.

Government must have its plans ready for housing and roads and public works that will take up the inevitable slack.

Individual employers must have their plans for new products aimed at new markets, abroad and at home, to absorb the energies of men no longer producing arms.

It is not that it isn't pleasant to feel the balloon begin to rise. It is pleasant. But there is no use kidding ourselves that any problem is being solved. The essential readjustment of the economic machine in "normal" times has not yet been made, and we must be ready with our adjustments when—and if—"normal" times come again.

AN IMPORTANT WEEK

It is not too late to remind that American Education Week, now being observed, is an annual celebration of American ideals of education life. It has been observed since 1921 and comes in November beginning on the Sunday of the week which includes Armistice Day. Sponsored by the National Education Association, the American Legion, the United States Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, it has the united support of every believer in our public school system.

The founding of American Education Week grew out of conditions revealed by the World War draft. Twenty-five per cent of the men examined in the draft were found to be illiterate, it was said, 29 per cent were physically unfit; many were foreign born and had little understanding of American life. These were startling disclosures. Members of the American Legion consulted with educators, and, as a result, the first American Education Week was observed.

At this time teachers and citizens generally should rededicate themselves to the cause of education and democracy.

RAMSPECK BILL HAS DODGE FOR EVADING CIVIL SERVICE LAW

Washington, Nov. 15.—Legislation to give permanent employment status to about 100,000 "temporary" government employees in Washington will probably get approval by Congress within the next few days, and if the act is passed, it will permit one of the slickest dodges ever conceived to evade civil service restrictions.

The trick will be done through the Ramspeck bill, giving the president authority to extend civil service ratings to government workers who are not now on that basis. This bill has been kicking around—or, more accurately, kicked around—in Congress ever since the first of the year, but the last kinks are now being ironed out.

Its passage would mean that non-civil service employees (except for WPA and administration workers) could, under presidential orders, get civil service protection by passing non-competitive tests. Thereafter they would be protected against political dismissals, although, of course, they would not be protected against losing off of their jobs if some economy-minded Congress in the future should decide to cut the budget.

Congress was a bit leery about passing the bill before election. Republicans figuring it would enable the New Deal to salt away too many faithful Democrats in case of a G. O. P. victory. It picked up some screwy amendments along the way, too, the worst being a House-aided rider stipulating that the blanketing-in couldn't take place until all state and territorial patronage quotas had been filled. That would have meant that the bill could never be put into effect, for under this provision the President would have had to dig up minor clerks for 10 Virgin Islanders, among others, to meet the requirement. But the rider is being dropped in conference, and an acceptable bill is expected shortly.

Some of the government's labor experts are now suggesting that peace between the C. I. O. and the A. F. of L. may take place without any union between the two groups. All that's needed, they say, is a fair-play agreement on the "spheres of influence" the rival unions ought to have.

For instance, A. F. of L. might waive all rights to organize auto workers, and C. I. O. might give up its rights in the building industry. If such agreements could be reached for half a dozen major fields, it is suggested that the two organizations could go along side by side without much trouble.

The Dies committee is due to ask for (and get) a new appropriation to continue its work next year. Noteworthy is the fact that the hot opposition the committee used to get from the "liberal bloc" in the House has cooled off considerably.

An illustration of this fact is furnished by the election campaign recently won by Congressman John M. Coffee of Washington, the liberal bloc's floor leader. Coffee's opponent made the Dies committee his campaign issue and belabored Coffee for having opposed the committee. Coffee turned the tables by producing letters from a majority of the committee—Congressmen Starnes, Voorhis, Casey and Dempsey—warmly urging his re-election. He won by 30,000 votes.

Point is that an ultra-liberal like Coffee not only can stand well with the Dies committee, but can—as Coffee did in the campaign—state that congressional liberals will support continuation of the committee if it works as in the last few months.

The board of education has decided to close the schools Thursday afternoon to allow the teachers and students to attend the program to be given by John Philip Sousa and his band at the Lyceum theatre. The theatre is practically sold out for the appearance of the famous band.

Warren people will have the great privilege of hearing Chester Crowell of New York speak on the Rights of Mexican at the present time at the Woman's Club Saturday evening. Under auspices of the Community Service Department of the club.

A new organization, the Information League, was organized at the First Lutheran church last evening with Raymond Lautenschlager elected president, Harold Baker, vice president, Ben J. Wingo, recording secretary, Louis J. Goss, treasurer.

The meeting of the Elwyn Club this week will be given over to Dr. George Wood Anderson who will give his message on "Business Efficiency" to the business men of Warren.

That there is an unemployment situation in Warren county that is most acute and causing much suffering has been brought out by the survey launched Saturday through a letter to this paper from Dr. M. Y. Ball. Up until two o'clock today over a hundred men had registered either at this office or with Dr. Ball as being able-bodied men willing to accept work at $3.00 per day.

The service clubs, Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis are entertaining their ladies tonight at the Woman's Club and will have the honor of hearing Jules Brazil, originator of "Alouette", the jester of international Kiwanis conventions, the French-Canadian Jack-in-the-box, the incomparable.

Floyd Stimson, Buffalo dare devil, made a sensational parachute leap at the local airport Sunday afternoon which was witnessed by a crowd of several hundred people. Stimson landed in one of the trees that skirt the north end of the field but was uninjured.

"Delocalizing the Community" will be the subject for discussion under the leadership of J. H. West at the meeting of the Life Study Club next Tuesday.

The Philomel Club will enjoy a program in charge of Mrs. L. R. Campbell tomorrow afternoon.

Nazis Rule Europe's "River of Destiny"

THE Danube river, pictured on the Rumanian stamp above, one of a recent Boy Scout semipostal series—is German semi-postal for the first time since 1918. This is Hitler's life-line, and up it must come the supplies necessary to continue the war. Only Soviet Russia is in a position to contest Nazi rule of this important waterway.

Control of the Danube and its valuable river commerce is a rich prize for Germany. Grain, minerals, coal and oil will be transported into Germany by Danubian barges. The Danube valley is the "breadbasket" of central Europe.

The 1750-mile long river serves the people of six nations—Germany, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Rumania and Bessarabia, reclaimed by Russia. Three of Europe's most important cities—Vienna, Budapest and Belgrade—are situated on its banks.

Hitler has already absorbed Austria and Czechoslovakia, both Danubian states. Control of the river may open the way for further expansion eastward.

LIBERTY AT THIRD

BUSINESS MEN WILL MEET AT WILLIAMSPORT

Secrecy Guarded This Launching

The secretary of the Warren Chamber of Commerce is organizing delegations to represent Warren at two important regional conferences early next week. He requests that any one who wishes to attend either of these conferences as outlined in this and other columns, notify him immediately.

At Erie, on Tuesday, the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a program which is explained elsewhere in this issue of the Times-Mirror.

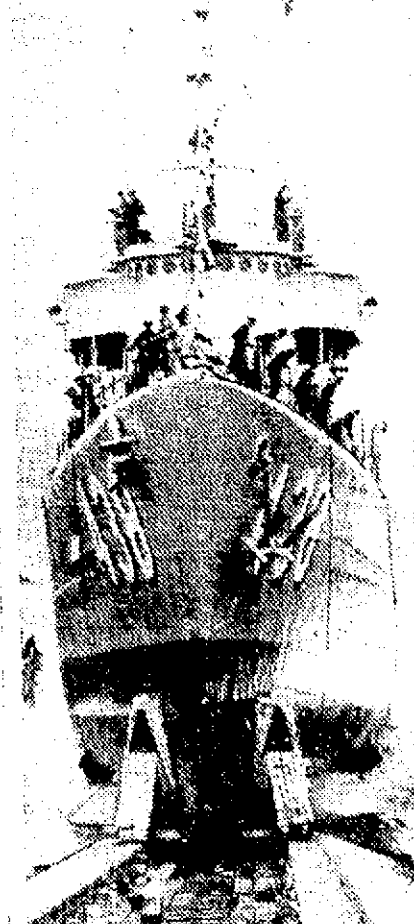

At Williamsport on Monday evening and through Tuesday, the Williamsport Community Trade Association will sponsor a statewide conference on vocational training for national defense. Jos. H. DeFrees, chairman of the Warren advisory council on national defense and it is hoped that local personnel managers and others interested in the subject will find it possible to be present.

"The program," states H. W. Correll, of the local Chamber, "provides an excellent array of talent who will speak on this question from a state and national viewpoint. Warren should be well represented to the end that as the program of national defense develops, our community will be able to answer the need for trained men and women in the next few years."

The opening session will be at Locomotive Hotel in Williamsport at six o'clock Monday evening, in connection with dinner. Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, professor of education, Pennsylvania State College, will speak on the subject, "What Do We Face in National Defense?"

Following the dinner meeting, delegates will spend the evening visiting various projects of the night shift, vocational educational and national defense training. The tour will be in charge of J. T. Shuman, special coordinator, national training.

The first session on Tuesday will be in connection with breakfast at the hotel, at which conference tables will be provided for directors of vocational education, public school officials, secretaries of Chambers of Commerce, Works Progress Administration, school board members, National Youth Administration, defense training advisory councils, and other groups.

The cheering crowds that usually attend a ship launching were absent, and details of the ship's performance kept secret when, as pictured above, the U. S. destroyer Ludlow slid down the ways at Bath, Me., recently. Few spectators beside the sponsor's party were permitted close to the ship.

Metropolitan Soprano, Marjorie Lawrence Matches Operatic Triumphs With Culinary Versatility, Says Mrs. Mabel Bowen

Dear Friends in Warren:

Busy homemakers are inclined to be skeptical when they read stories about glamorous celebrities who reach for an apron on the slightest provocation and head for the kitchen.

However there is one Metropolitan Star who has proved conclusively to her admiring friends that her ability to collect and concoct recipes, is no legend. The star who is as versatile in her cooking as in her operatic roles is Marjorie Lawrence. Her concert and operatic tours have taken her all over the United States, Europe, South America, Australia and Asia—and in each state and country she has added to her collection of recipes, until today she has one of the finest in the world.

Miss Lawrence's early interest in cooking was not a whim; it was economics. At 18, she ran away from her father's ranch, because she wanted to be an opera star, and he wouldn't hear of it. She arrived in Melbourne, 90 miles away, with about $60 and no prospect of a job.

Ever resourceful, the runaway answered an ad in the papers for a cook and read her first cook book—after she was hired. Miss Lawrence has been reading cook books ever since. Today, when she is recognized as one of the finest dramatic sopranos that the Metropolitan has ever known, and her income is such that she could hire ten cooks, she still gets a thrill from turning out some delectable dish in the kitchenette of her New York City apartment hotel.

Emphasizing that the cookery art begins with intelligent marketing, Miss Lawrence says:

"I learned to cook in Australia, but I learned to shop in France. If you ever have seen French peasant women, dressed in rusty black with huge baskets on their arms, shopping at the market, you would know what I mean. They peer at this vegetable, pinch that piece of fruit, cluck their tongues at the prices and then make a final selection."

"The reason French food is so perfect is because the women take so much trouble. They know the secret of careful preparation and their seasoning secrets make a cheap cut of meat taste better than filet mignon."

Miss Lawrence shared some of those seasoning secrets when as a struggling young artist in Paris she tried each day to make one sou do the work of ten. Friends of her old student days still smack their lips when they recall the "Peasant Soup" which she used to make with a couple of carrots, an onion, three or four potatoes, parsnip, celery and one or two bouillon cubes for special flavor.

Just back from South America, where she has been singing with the Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires, Miss Lawrence has a new culinary enthusiasm—Latin American.

The car, proceeding east, struck a machine owned by Lyle Johnson, of Youngville, which was parked on the north side of the street and came to rest against the pole. Chief of Police Frank Dumble and Private K. W. Leeper of the state motor police have not yet completed the investigation of the accident.

CINDER CREWS ARE KEPT BUSY DURING NIGHT

Experiencing the first heavy snowfall of the season, this entire district was blanketed in white last night and by this morning about two inches of snow had fallen.

The snow caused highway cinder crews to go into action for the first time in the county. Three crews of three men each were kept busy for several hours spreading ashes on slippery spots.

According to the state highway department office at Starbrick the most slippery section of highway was between Columbus and Pittsfield on U. S. route 6. It was also necessary to cinder the overpasses at Irvine and Youngsville.

It continued to snow intermittently today and more snow is predicted for tonight.

Week of Prayer Is Closed With Young People's Gathering

The fourth and final service in the week of prayer observance was held at 7:45 o'clock this morning in the Cray chapel of the First Methodist church.

This period was unusually impressive since it was conducted entirely by the young people. Harold Carlson presided, leading in the hymns and responsive readings, as well as reading some challenging poetry.

The message of the morning was brought by Harry Conroy, president of the Hi-Y Club, co-sponsor with the High School Girls' Club in this series. Miss Margaret Black was the pianist.

In his address Mr. Conroy used the week's theme "Out of Darkness—Light", reminding his audience that Jesus came into this world as God's gift of light, also that many great men had started as merely young men and women like those attending the service.

This morning's attendance was the largest of the four services and a real inspiration for the continuance of this annual project of the two young people's units.

The world fellowship observance comes to a close Sunday afternoon, with a special vesper service in the Y. W. C. A. activities building.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—"North West Mounted Police." Cecil B. DeMille Production. Principals: Gary Cooper, Madeleine Carroll, Paulette Goddard, Preston Foster, Robert Preston, George Bancroft, Ljane Overman, Akum Tamboff, Walter Hampden, Lon Chaney, Jr., Montagu Love, Regis Toomey.

Sometimes I think Gary Cooper is the greatest actor in Hollywood. I thought so just after seeing this picture. In it he is so natural that by contrast everything else looks and sounds like so much DeMille.

DeMille, of course has a love for theatrics and "North West Mounted Police" gives him a field day. It's a bright field day, for the picture is in color, predominantly red because of the Mounties' coats and the bloodshed.

Historian DeMille concerns himself with the Red half-breed problem in Canada in the late 19th century. The whites have been pushing farther west setting up homes, and the half-breeds led by the schoolteacher from across the border in the States, express their resentment. It's up to the Mounties to stop all this outlandish trouble and the "his accounts for a page of a lot of blood-and-under action in which virtue receives its customary triumph, and after a while the contrary custom is left without the girl out leading a way the prisoner he came North to get.

The principal Mountie heroes are Foster, Preston Love and Toomey. Cooper is from the Texas Rangers, an outfit which also gets its men. The men turn out to be Bancroft who pays an unscrupulous whisky-trader also sought by the Mounties, is no more surprising than that he also is found to be the father of the half-breed wildcat (Goddard) who causes Preston to desert this post. This desertion gives Gary, in love with Preston's sister (Carroll), a chance to cover up with his own quiet heroism for the brother so that everyone is happy at the end except Preston (who is dead) and Bancroft (who is headed for Texas to die).

Cooper passes through all the melodrama with an ingenuitous tongue-in-cheek air and Miss Carroll is beautiful as the oh-so-good-and-noble sister Paulette just times and tries to be a wildcat and measures up in dialect and frenzied I suppose, to the DeMille standard.

"WHO KILLED AUNT MAGGIE?" Screenplay by Stuart Palmer from the novel by McGowan Field. Directed by Arthur Lubin. Principals: John Hubbard, Wendy Barrie, Edgar Kennedy, Elizabeth Patterson, Onslow Stevens, Joyce Compton, Walter Abel, Mona Mayne, Willie Best, Daisy Lee Motherhead, Milton Parsons.

The action opens in a radio advertising office where Wend, and John, about to be married are quarreling because John thinks the radio serial is preposterous. Then the action shifts to the locale of the serial—Wistaria Hall, an ante-bellum estate near Atlanta. Uncle Charles' corpse appears. Aunt Maggie is strangled, a doctor's wife is "accidentally" shot, and other strange persons go on to convince John that Wend is right about her serial. It's a good melodrama.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—If Italy, in its attempted blitzkrieg on Greece, starts raining bombs on Athens, it will be the destruction of what nearly all American continental travelers refer to as "the most superficially American city in Europe or Asia."

This is a phrase that needs some explaining, but it boils down to the fact that there are few if any cities on the continent where an American can feel so much at home... so little a stranger in a foreign land.

Almost daily now, I find newspapermen, foreign service officials, former tourists shaking their heads sadly over the prospective plight of Athens and recalling visits to the metropolis of the Aegean as their happiest days abroad. Why?

Because at the kiosks on the streets of Athens, you probably can buy more American newspapers and magazines than anywhere else outside this hemisphere. On the Athens radio at least a dozen movies where neon lights boldly announce Hollywood films in American and without the bother of Greek subtitles. In the drug stores you find all of the locally nationally-advertised brands of toilet articles. In the restaurants, you can get American food cooked in the Greek-American manner. In the groceries, you can buy American canned goods and in the shops and department stores are wares bearing American labels.

Tops Them All

I HAVE no intention of exaggerating this, Athens, Greece, is not Athens, Ga., but I haven't talked to a traveler here who hasn't commented that it is probably easier to get by in Athens, Greece, without speaking a foreign language than in any of the continental cities.

The reason for all this is simply that probably more Greeks than any other nationality have come to America to make their fortunes, large or small, and returned to live out their days and rear their families in the "old country." Living is so cheap (or at least has been down through the years) that a man with a few thousand dollars can return to his little village, buy a small farm, a cow, goats and a few olive trees and live like the king of his community. These affluent repatriates, having gotten a taste of American life, demand such things as western and detective stories, a copy of the "old home town" newspaper, American movies, and a few luxuries such as American toothpaste, scented soap, ten-cent lipstick.

Lived At Little Rock

A FRIEND told me this story. A few years ago in the mountains where the people have been hearing the thunder of guns. At a little village, the party stopped and she asked off alone to a tiny house that topped a nearby crest. There were a half a dozen children about and when they found that the lady came from America, they insisted that she wait to meet their father. Soon he came and in the heat of the Americanese that ever lived over the Ozarks, told his visitor that he had lived for 10 years and amassed "his fortune" in the "greatest little city in the southwest," Little Rock, Ark.

All over Greece, from Crete to Macedonia, it is the same. The condition is enhanced no doubt by the fact that there is a conflict in our naturalization laws and Greece does not recognize the American naturalization law. If he returns to Greece, many now are finding out about that. Having returned to the old country, they are being inducted into the service, regardless of their American naturalization papers.

Acropolis And Parthenon?

There is one other point that former tourists to Athens are wondering about. Will the Axis raining bombs from the sky above Athens, blast the Acropolis and complete destruction of the Parthenon which was started by an Italian and a German just 250 years ago?

In 1827, the Doge, Morosini, and a German prince, laid siege to Athens, blew up the powder magazine in the Parthenon, and began the vandalism of Pericles' great masterpiece of Attic art which eventually reduced it to its present state of ruin.

FRANKLIN MUSIC GROUP TO PLAY CONCERT HERE

A school music event that will be of considerable interest to the public is announced today by Harry Summers, instructor of instrumental groups in the borough schools.

He has set the date of Tuesday, November 26, for the annual exchange of visits between musical groups of Warren and Franklin high schools and on that occasion Richard Stocker will bring his orchestra here for a combined concert with the Dragon orchestra.

Last year the school bands were heard in this exchange. In the same manner, the visiting orchestra will provide the first half of the program, after which the membership of between 90 and 100, for the remainder of the program.

The program will get under way at 7:30 o'clock in the Beatty school gymnasium and a small admission of 15 cents will be asked in order to finance the local orchestra's trip to Franklin on December 6.

Who Killed Aunt Maggie?

By MEDORA FIELD

YESTERDAY: Aunt Maggie had crashed the party Sally and Bill were giving to celebrate the engagement of two of their friends. But Aunt Maggie did not seem to be the first, for she was murdered the first night, and the lonely house in the rain-swept country near Atlanta was thrown into confusion as a result. Now the hosts and their guests are searching the house while Aunt Maggie's body lies in the room nearby. Russell to report events to the police.

Chapter Nine Alone With Fear

WE FOUND Aunt Maggie's room as neat as could be. Slippers under the bed. Her deep purple dressing gown across the foot. Silver toilet things on the bureau. None of which she would ever use again.

Neither this room nor any of the others showed evidence of having been entered by alien feet.

Back in the hall, the candles cast weird shadows before us and Alice clung more closely to Bob. Instinctively I also moved closer to Kirk, for in the uncertain light it seemed to me that one of the doors of a big armoire moved slightly.

But when we investigated we found it empty.

"Just nerves," laughed Kirk reassuringly.

We had almost finished with the second floor when we met the other crew. Evidently it was not the only one suffering from nerves, for Bill was still kidding Eve because she had brought along one of the darts from the game room.

"For protection," she announced.

"I told her an ice pick would be much more efficient," Bill said.

"But you could do a pretty good job with this, planted right in the vicinity of the heart," Eve argued, flourishing the heavy feather-tipped steel pin to illustrate her point and making Alice wince.

"Couldn't it be made a bit longer?" said Bob.

"Oh, yes, the pin is nearly three inches," she pointed out.

Nobody had found anything on the tour. But Andrew had come back into the house. It developed that there were two tires flat on Bill's car. That tires on every car on the place were flat.

Somebody had accomplished this very neatly by removing the valve cores from at least two tires on each car.

Delay

AFTER a good deal of rather pointless discussion as to ways and means, it was finally decided to postpone until morning any further effort to get in touch with the outside world.

And when I say outside world, I am in no way exaggerating the feeling of isolation which completely overwhelmed us, although we were only five miles from Roswell and twenty from Atlanta. No telephone, no electric lights, the automobiles out of commission, the road practically impassable and the rain still pouring. And in the drawing room the sheeted figure of Aunt Maggie, with finger marks on her throat.

So it was not a very gay house-party group gathered around the fire in the library. There had been times when I thought candlelight romantic, but this was not one of them. Beyond the circle of the firelight the big old room was full of shadows, and beyond these shadows the outer rooms were swallowed in darkness so complete that it was almost palpable. One felt it there waiting, with something ominous in the waiting—fingers, perhaps, which might reach out and draw one into the suffocation of darkness even more final.

In fact, when Andrew opened the dining-room door unexpectedly, Claire, who was sitting with her back toward him, started up with a little involuntary cry of fright. Bob and Kirk both sprang up as though to rush to her defense, furnishing the rest of us a little comic relief from strain and giving all an opportunity to laugh, even though some of us did so a bit shakily.

Andrew, the unwitting cause of it all, was triumphantly holding aloft an oil lamp, and I for one felt like giving him three rousing cheers at the sight. He had remembered the two lamps and can of kerosene oil which we had moved from the kitchen pantry to the basement, and he and Beas had salvaged them and put the lamps in condition for use. My grandmother kept them because she never quite trusted electricity. A search of all the cars had revealed only one flashlight.

"Where you want I should put the other'n, Miss Sally?" Andrew asked.

"Why not just bring it in here? Even then we won't be any too bright."

"I thought as how you might want it in the front hall, mebbe, to light you up the steps."

"All right," said Alice usual. Andrew had worked it all out beforehand. "And please bring in some extra candles, so there will be enough for all the bedrooms."

"They're already candles in them silver candle dishes on the bedside tables, Miss Sally."

"Yes, I know, but these are to get us in the bedrooms." Efficient as he is, there are plenty of times when I wish Andrew wasn't quite so omniscient.

I felt a little conscience-stricken when Andrew came in again a few minutes later with fresh coffee and big cups to serve it in this time. We were all surprised to discover that it was only twelve o'clock. So much had happened since I looked at my wrist watch at eight o'clock and decided that dinner must be served at once, lest Bob drink more than even he could carry gracefully.

"Talking it over, we figured that it must have been about ten o'clock when Aunt Maggie was discovered at the foot of the back stairs."

"Bessie and Andrew had not finished clearing up when I left them in the kitchen," I recalled, "and—found Aunt Maggie."

"I was in the powder room," said Eve.

And at that everyone tried to remember where he or she had been at the particular moment when the alarm first sounded.

Nobody, it seemed, had been with anybody else.

Bill had taken Kirk to the game room after dinner, but had left him there for a few minutes to go upstairs for the ping-pong net and rackets, which he had failed to bring down earlier in the evening. Alice was in her bedroom on the second floor. Not even the engaged pair were together.

"I was looking at those miniatures in the drawing room," said Claire. "There is one that looks very much like you, Sally, but I suppose you know that."

Bob said briefly, "I had gone upstairs to my room for a moment."

But none of the three on the second floor had come down the stairs together. Andrew, who had summoned Bill, had followed him down the back stairs. Alice had descended by way of the front stairs. Bob said he had seen her below him in the hall when he reached the landing.

"I heard someone behind me," Alice affirmed. "But I hurried on without looking back."

"It must have happened when I was right in the powder room," Eve said slowly, as though the idea had just occurred to her. A puzzled look came into her dark eyes, then her expression cleared and she added, "That must be why I thought—"

But as we all turned our attention full upon her, she broke off, leaving the sentence hanging incomplete in mid-air. "Thought what?" Bob asked for all of us. She said a little uncertainly, "For one usually so belligerently poised. 'Nothing,' she said. 'Just something I hadn't thought of before.'"

Death Watch

THIS did not strike me as in any way significant at the time. I was too busy resenting Eve's intrusion at Wisteria Hall, for it had just dawned on me that except for her egotistical dissertation on jade, which had laid me to sleep in the library, I might have reached the back passage-way in time to prevent a murder. Surely Aunt Maggie could have been dead only a few minutes when I found her.

Aunt Maggie had had her coffee and had left us. The sweater showed that she had returned to her room and had probably meant to spend the evening in the study. Certainly that had been her announced intention. Something or somebody had brought her downstairs to her death.

These reflections on my part were broken in upon by Bob's "I know this is on everybody's mind," he said, as he refilled and lighted the pipe which apparently had been a bone of contention between himself and Eve, "and, of course, we are all sad because of Aunt Maggie's death. She was really just like a member of my own family. But after all, there is nothing we can do about it tonight. So let's try to talk about something else. Or better still, why don't we go to bed? Tomorrow is bound to be quite a day for all of us."

Nobody was sleepy, of course. But Bill added his approval to Bob's suggestion. "There will have to be an investigation and probably an inquest," he pointed out. "We will all have to answer questions as witnesses."

"But that's just the thing," said Alice. "There weren't any witnesses. And anyway, how can anybody try to sleep with a murderer running around loose? We might all be murdered in our beds."

"I figure we are probably safe enough," said Bob. "Why should somebody make sure that we are stuck here, with no means of outside communication unless he wanted to make his own get-away?"

"That sounds reasonable enough," Kirk agreed. "If anything about the situation can be called reasonable."

"Just the same," said Bill, "I think I'll keep at least one eye open."

"I was just getting ready to suggest that we take turns at sentry duty," said Bob. "And I'll be glad to take the first shift."

"Oh, Bob, must you?" Alice objected.

"And why not, for heaven's sake?" said Alice sharply, as though his nerves had finally worn thin from too much sisterly clinking.

Both Bill and Kirk insisted also that they would take the first shift, or remain up the rest of the night if necessary; but Bob, a little grim by now, would have none of it. He would call Kirk at the end of two hours, he promised, and at the end of another two, Kirk could call Bill.

After the Pennsylvania State Tournament at Pittsburgh I drove back to New York and the following weekend took in the tournament at Warren, Pa. This little city, in the northeast corner of Pennsylvania, is a hotbed of bridge. It is the home of Mrs. Albert Rockwell, nationally known for her activity in connection with the women's national committee of the American Contract Bridge League.

The Warren tournament attracts fine players from Pittsburgh, Erie, Cleveland, Buffalo and New York. Two new stars were uncovered at the tournament this year. Mrs. Ralph Gordon and Sam McCarthy of Buffalo.

They won two of the major events—the open pair championship on Saturday, and on Sunday, paired with Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Praag of Pittsburgh, they won the team-of-four title. I found them both very fine players and especially good on defense. Here is one of the hands played in the tournament.

Mrs. Gordon (South) won the opening lead with the ace of spades. The common practice would be to return a spade, but Mrs. Gordon decided to try to kill that string of diamonds in dummy. Making the play known as the Merrimac Coup, she led her king of hearts.

Pennsylvania Gas Co. Employees Attend Sales Rally at Office Here

Nearly 100 employees of Pennsylvania Gas Company attended a Ruud Automatic Gas Water Heater sales rally, which was held in the general office of the Pennsylvania Gas Company, 213 Second avenue, last night.

The meeting was under the direction and supervision of representatives of the Ruud Manufacturing Company. P. S. Painter, district manager, was introduced to the assembled employees by E. C. Christensen, assistant secretary and treasurer of the gas company. Mr. Painter explained the purpose of the meeting and announced that "The Mirror Speaks" would be the subject discussed.

H. B. Kivlan, service manager for the Ruud Company, assembled a heater, starting with the base and continuing to the completed product, explaining method of construction, type and history of materials used, automatic features and stressing the importance of Ruud metal tanks in connection with hot water heating. Monel, a comparative new comer in the hot water heating industry presents a strong, rust-proof and long-lived tank which is unconditionally guaranteed against leaks and failures caused by rust and corrosion for a period of 20 years.

G. M. Rhode, sales promotion manager, concluded the demonstration by explaining the Ruud plan of national advertising. He showed by facts and figures that in the past three years, over 172 million people have been contacted by either direct mailing, national or local advertising, regarding the desirability of owning a Ruud Heater with the Monel metal tank.

Walter Kujawa, of Ludlow, who is employed by Pennsylvania Gas Company at Roystone station was presented with a 17 jewel Waltham watch with a Monel case, with chain and knife to match, by the Ruud Company as a prize award.

Refreshments were served to conclude the evening.

Leidigmen Finish Third In District Football Conference

Academy And East In Battle For AA Title; Meadville Is Fourth

According to the official standings of the Class AA Football Conference of Northwestern Pennsylvania, Warren High's Dragons are assured of third place, behind Erie Academy and Erie East who are waging a war for the lead.

The Lions, with two wins and one tie in conference competition, boast 92 points which is two better than the Sunrises' 90, garnered by three wins and one tie. The Academy eleven gained additional prestige by defeating Warren's Dragons who defeated Meadville's Bulldogs after they had tied East.

Farrell and Sharon are undefeated in conference games but, like Oil City, are ineligible for rating because they played only one other conference member.

The Blue and White have 63 points, one better than Meadville and 14 more than Erie Strong Vincent and Erie Tech.

Warren is in the first division of the Big 15, made up of the leading teams of Northwestern Pennsylvania, landing in seventh place. Farrell, with nine wins and no defeats, tanks first. Academy has won six but tied two.

In the Class A Conference Grove City, with four wins and no defeats has gained the title in the first official season of the league's existence. Greenville, unofficial champion in 1939, was Class A champion in 1940, second with four wins and one loss. Sharpville, Franklin, Titusville and Conyn finished in that order.

In the first 33 scorers of the district, Bob Stung, Brown and Joe Tannhorne, of the Dragons were the only local representatives. Brown was in 11th place with 42 points while the co-captain and quarterback scored 29 points for 18th position. In 1939, "Stung" was the leading scorer of the Big 15.

High McKinnis, Farrell High's husky negro fullback is the undisputed successor to the local player's crown with 127 points in nine games. This total more than doubles Brown's 1939 mark of 63 but fell a point short of the all-time record set in 1938 by Marty Vardaro of Meadville.

Ken Schwindt, of Academy, is second with 78 points and Dickson, of Grove City, third with 66.

BAN PLACED ON OLD RIVALRY AS RESULT OF RIOT

Ebensburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—(P)—The 21-year-old football rivalry between Johnstown and Altoona high schools, which culminated in a free-for-all at the end of their annual game last Saturday, has been shelved for the next two seasons.

The decision was announced by the District Six committee of the PIAA after a hearing here last night. The committee ordered the two schools not to play each other in football or basketball until January 1, 1943.

The game at Altoona Saturday came to a spectacular end when fighting broke out among officials and spectators. The referee, two policemen, a player and several of the 35,000 fans were injured.

The Johnstown gridders had protested that the ball rolled dead after one of their punts. With only three minutes of play remaining, Altoona advanced to make the only touchdown of the game. After the last night's riot, Referee Russell M. Buckwalter of Latrobe awarded Altoona a 1-0 forfeit victory.

At last night's hearing, Buckwalter said he ordered the forfeit because the field had become crowded with Johnstown partisans. The committee, after listening to two and one-half hours of testimony, exonerated Buckwalter and the game's two other officials of blame.

The PIAA group found that Altoona had failed to provide sufficient police protection and that Johnstown school authorities did not properly control the "action" of the coaches and players.

Altoona, undefeated and untied, has been assigned to play Brownsville for the Class AA title of the WPIAL.

DRAGONS CLASH Shakeup In Chicago WITH ALUMNI AT Cub Organization Is 2:30 TOMORROW New Hot Stove Item

The tilt that many fans enjoy even more than the inter-school affairs will be played at Russell Field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the Dragons meet the alumni in the annual clash.

The Dragons will line up as they started the Meadville fray while the Alumni will call on the following men to square off against the underclassmen:

Tony Massa, quarterback; Harold "Buster" Brown and "Dubby" Ruhlman, halfbacks; Ernie Sedon, fullback; Kenny Christensen and Clair Ward, ends; Bob Schmamm and Bob Jensen, tackles; "Pidge" Stewart and an unnamed mate at guards and "Chet" Munksgard at center. If "Shanty" Larsen, who now resides in Buffalo, is present for the fray, Jensen will probably play a guard.

"Whizzer" Rogers will be a reserve back unless one of the 1938 backs has to take a line position. If the latter is the case, the "Whizzer" will take his accustomed spot opposite Brown.

The admission price for the tilt has been set at 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for students. Season tickets are not good for this specially added attraction.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—(P)—"What next?" attitude prevailed today in Chicago baseball circles after the series of rapid fire managerial and front office shifts in the Cubs organization.

The Cubs had a general manager, a new wrinkle in President E. K. Wrigley's baseball system, but the identity of the successor to the ousted Gabby Hartnett—if one has been named—still is unknown to the public.

James T. Gallagher, 36-year-old baseball writer of the Chicago Herald-American who was appointed general manager yesterday, said only that a new Cub pilot "definitely" would be named before the winter baseball meetings early in December. It was rumored that the manager already has been selected but that the announcement would be withheld until next week.

Yesterday's other changes involved the appointment of William L. Veeck, Jr., son of the late Cub president, as treasurer to succeed Charles A. Weber, and Weber's decision to withdraw his resignation as vice president "for the time being, at least."

Billy Meyer, Kansas City manager, and Jimmy Wilson, Cincinnati coach, remained the top men among rumored managerial choices. A third prospect was Kiki Cuyler, former Cub outfielder now managing Chattanooga of the Southern Association.

"To be perfectly frank," said Wrigley, "The Higbe sale did have some influence, not directly but indirectly. And not only on Hartnett but on all of us."

"It was one of the things that upset me about our whole organization. When I saw the headline: 'Higbe sold for $100,000' it made me realize even more that something had to be done."

"This is a post-mortem and I can't say that we were wrong in letting Higbe go. Possibly we could not have made the deal for Passau without him and Passau won 20 games for us. But there have been too many ships of this kind and that is one of the reasons we are changing things."

SPORT SCATTERINGS

The Dragons are due another pat on the back for their winning of third position in the Northwestern Pennsylvania Class AA grid conference, coming in under the wire ahead of such teams as Meadville, Erie Strong Vincent and Erie Tech. Figuring the standings of a conference requires an expert, and Johnny Johnson, of the Meadville Tribune-Republican, has filled the post in a fine manner for a number of years. To the uninitiated it may seem strange that Erie Strong Vincent's Colonels, who walloped the Dragons, 24 to 0, could possibly be behind the locals. The explanation lies in the intricate system of computing standings, but it is probably most easily explained by Vincent's subsequent loss to Tech. Tech's loss to Meadville, Franklin's 6-0 verdict over the latter and Warren's wins over both the Nursery and the Bulldogs.

To our mind, Warren football fans are very fortunate in having its scholastic grid representatives playing in District Ten competition. Over Academy or Strong Vincent, it gives local followers an opportunity to see some great teams in action and the Blue and White warriors an opportunity to get experience and an acid test that have in the past proved of great benefit. In addition to playing District Ten teams, the Dragons are engaging the most outstanding drawing cards in District Nine—Bradford, Kane and Ridgway—and engage in an inter-state clash with their old rivals from Jamestown. We believe the Warren grid schedule is as well balanced from both player and fan standpoint as any in the entire section.

While it isn't on the printed schedule, the annual alumni game is always an A-1 attraction and another chapter in the feud between "this year's and last year's" eleven will be written tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Russell Field. Except for Giegerich, most of the 1938 lettermen will be on hand to prove what they could have done had they had another crack at it this season. The present squad, of course, has the edge in condition and recent contact with the fine art of grid warfare, but the 1939 crew should bear the advantage in weight. If "Shanty" Larsen, hard-hitting tackle, puts in an appearance, the alumni cause will be somewhat enhanced but we'll see a lot of fun no matter what the lineups are. If it's a nice day there'll be a big crowd out there, and bargain rates of two bits and fifteen cents will apply.

November 15, 1920.—Joe Haunesser and Lloyd Woodard added new laurels to their records for the season Saturday when they played a major part in Warren High's 26-6 victory over Jamestown at Russell Field. Two of the touchdowns were made by the former after long runs. Woodard passed to Elliott for another score and lugged the ball over for the fourth just before the whistle blew to end the game. Carlson and Geer were given chances to perform and both made excellent impressions.

November 15, 1930.—In the bowling average lists printed today, Mel Johnson is leading the Class "A" Industrial League with 191. Curly Fischer is second with 188 and George Pedlow is third with 182. Fischer, however, is tops in the City League with an average of 195, with Frank Padale and Frank Rossell tied for second with 190. "Jap" Lynch is third with 190.

"Y" CAGE TEAMS BEGIN WARMUPS

The Y. M. C. A. gym was the scene of two cage tilts last night as the Hi-Y and "Y" Colts and the Texas Hots and Phalanx Fraternity clashed in warmup engagements.

A full schedule of practices has been arranged before the official opening of the loop.

In the Class "A" tilt, the Texas Hots, composed of last year's Dragons, put the whammy on the Phalanx 31 to 8, with Paul Rabin leading the way. The second game was a thriller with the Hi-Y outscoring the Colts in the final period to win 35-31. Graham and Beach led the assault for the winners, with Nelson, Seymour and Lichenberg pacing the losers.

LOUIS TO DEFEND TITLE IN PHILLY

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—(P)—The doubtful pleasure of a shot at Joe Louis' heavyweight crown has been awarded to either Philadelphia's Gus Dorazio or Red Burman, of Baltimore.

The two challengers meet in Baltimore next Monday and promoter Herman Taylor announced yesterday the Brown Bomber has agreed to meet the winner in a title bout.

The fight, he said, would be held in Philadelphia some time in January. Dorazio recently dropped a 10-round decision to Arturo Godoy, knock-out victim of Louis.

HARMON VS. GOPHERS

Ann Arbor, Nov. 15.—Tom Harmon, Michigan's ace back, who failed to score in three years against Minnesota, averaged 2.7 yards per attempt in games with the Gophers.

QUICK REJECTED

Canberra, Australia, Nov. 15.—Adrian Quist's asthma resulted in the Davis Cup staff's rejection when he attempted to enlist in the Australian army.

CHAMPS ONCE RIVALS

Pittsburgh, Nov. 15.—Billy Conn and Fritz Zivic, Pittsburgh's current boxing champions, once were coaches of rival sandlot baseball teams.

Cole Hill

Mrs. Roa Holmes who has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Edith Junn and family, for several weeks at her home at Cocoa, Fla., has returned to her home at Torpedo.

E. L. Martin, the Cole Hill fire-tower watchman, has left the fire-tower here after watching for forest fires for several weeks.

The hard rains and snow here, the past week, have made the woods too wet for any forest fires to get started.

The new cement road, being built between the railroad crossing near the P. and E. station at Garland and the Whitestown crossing east of Garland is not furnished yet.

There had to be an overhead crossing built and a cement bridge built over the Blue Eye Run.

When the work is finished two dangerous crossings will be eliminated.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eastman, November 7th at Kane, Mr. Eastman was a former Cole Hill boy. His many friends here extend congratulations and best wishes to the happy parents.

MICHIGAN-PURDUE GAME IS SELLOUT

Ann Arbor Mich. Nov. 15.—Here are a flock of rumors we're trying to check as we reel to press—Davey O'Brien will quit pro football and become a G-man if the FBI approves his application. Gabby Hartnett is slated for a post with the Giants, either as coach or boss farmer at Jersey City. Joe Engel turned down an offer of $15,000 per to run the Brooklyn team.

The 7-to-6 defeat by Minnesota apparently was the snafu in the arm needed to boost ticket sales for the Northwestern game.

The front office announced today that with fewer than 15,000 tickets remaining Michigan appeared to be headed for its first sellout since 1915, when dropped from the stock market.

Stanford scouted the Texas Aggies last week which may mean a lot or nothing at all. An eastern university is after Vic Hanson, former Syracuse coach. None of these guaranteed for more than 30 minutes.

Sports Cocktail

Fritz Zivic ought to take Al Davis unless he gets careless and runs into one. A soccer like Davis is always dangerous. Leo Duracher got safely out of the Utah woods and now is visiting George Raft in Hollywood. Vicky Edwards, the Mississippi delta beauty, who sponsored Boston College to its win over Tulane, has unexpectedly arrived in Beantown to put the whammy on Georgetown tomorrow. Add iron men: Dick Weber, Syracuse guard from Toledo, played the full 50 minutes in the last three games and won 37 minutes in a preceding tilt, or 237 minutes out of a possible 240.

L. A. 7-5 over Washington State. Ohio State 4-1 over Illinois. Auburn 2-1 over Louisiana State.

Bingo!

The Mountsville W. Va. highs hit the jack pot. Against Folansbee the other day they scored a safety, field goal, touchdown and extra point, all in one period.

PENN STATE AFTER BOWL INVITATION

State College, Nov. 13.—(P)—Penn State's powerful football team, undefeated in its last 14 starts, is looking about for a post-season bowl game invitation—for the first time in nearly two decades.

The Nittany Lions said goodbye to defeat after Cornell beat them in 1939. This year they whipped Bucknell, Temple, West Virginia, South Carolina and Lehigh, being tied only by Syracuse and 13-13.

Hurdles still ahead are the games with New York University tomorrow and Pitt the following week but they don't appear so tough to what Coach Bob Higgins regards as one of the best eleven in State's history.

UNION CITY MAN IS GIVEN SUSPENDED TERM

Pittsburgh, Nov. 15.—(P)—Oliver Martin Sexton, former assistant cashier of the Home National Bank of Union City, was given a suspended two and a half year sentence to the penitentiary today in federal court on a charge of misusing bank funds and making false entries.

He also was placed on probation for four years and ordered to make restitution of $4,265 which government attorneys said he owed the bank.

Sexton, who pleaded guilty, was accused of misusing $12,240 of the bank's money to purchase stock. Federal attorneys told Judge Robert M. Gibson that Sexton had turned the stock to the bank but still owed the $4,265.

Serious Break in Ranks Of the C. I. O. Reported member of the National Defense Advisory Board and a vice president of the CIO, that he would not attend meetings of the executive board. He said his time would be taken up attending sessions of the amalgamated's executive board.

One of the leaders of Hillman's amalgamated group expressed belief the CIO would be asked to curb the powers of its president between conventions.

Rosenblum and Weinstein said their action in refusing committee assignments "speaks for itself." Rosenblum had been named to the committee on appeals, of which James J. Matles of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, is chairman, and Weinstein to the rules committee, headed by Lewis Merrill of the United Office and Professional Workers.

Reports of efforts to seek peace between the CIO and the American Federation of Labor also came from the Amalgamated. Hillman stated flatly that he wanted peace between the labor organizations.

Lewis, who attended a meeting of the United Mine Workers policy committee yesterday, declined to comment on the happenings.

my address Monday. But I say this for what conclusions may be drawn from it: The AFL last year appointed a committee to deal with the CIO.

Then he added: "But nothing came of it because Lewis would not permit appointment of a committee to deal with our committee."

Other AFL officials openly favoring peace, however, said they would watch with sharp interest the CIO convention opening Monday in Atlantic City.

Green said that Mills, whose appointment to the NLRB was predicted yesterday in Washington, has always been "held in high regard by us since he served so excellently and satisfactorily on the old labor board" under the NRA.

MOLOTOFF RETURNS FROM BERLIN VISIT
Moscow Nov. 15.—(P)—Premier Vyacheslav Molotov returned to Russia today from his conversations with the highest German officials in Berlin—his first trip outside of the country. A special train brought the premier across the border into Soviet territory and speed toward Moscow.

The Soviet press displayed on their front pages the communiqués announcing Molotov's departure from Berlin yesterday.

A lengthy message by Tass, the Soviet news agency, described the leave-taking ceremonies in Berlin and said: "The send-off for Comrade Molotov took place in impressive surroundings."

crowd. While bricks and wooden beams fell in a cloud of dust, the theatre sprinkler system let go, raining water over the wreckage.

Firemen, rushing to the scene, dug in the debris for victims—but no one had been caught under it. In a short time a crowd estimated at 5,000 persons congregated outside the show house in the city's business district.

Authorities blamed the mishap on the building's wooden framework.

Greeks Claim Advances Along 100-Mile Front

ships which they reported Tuesday as having been torpedoed and "probably" sunk by an Italian submarine in the central Mediterranean.

The High Command, amplifying the earlier report of the "probable" sinking, said the British ship was struck by three torpedoes from the Italian submarine Capponi while escorting the aircraft carrier Illustrious through the Mediterranean south of Sicily.

The High Command made no reference to the Greek front except a note "normal patrol and artillery activities in the Egean sector."

On the Egyptian front, the Italians said a formation of British armored cars was put to flight and Italian planes bombed the Alexandria naval base, the Matruh railway and other objectives.

Italian newspapers insinuated that Egyptian Premier Hassan Sabry Pasha, who collapsed and died at the opening session of parliament yesterday, was poisoned by a British agent for refusing to lead Egypt into war against Italy.

GIRLS' CLUB HAS BOWL OF RICE FETE

The High School Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. held a "bowl of rice" dinner Wednesday evening in accordance with the conference area plans. These dinners were held during world fellowship week and proceeds go to the National Y. W. C. A. China and European Refugee Fund. Another local project was a bake sale held last Saturday.

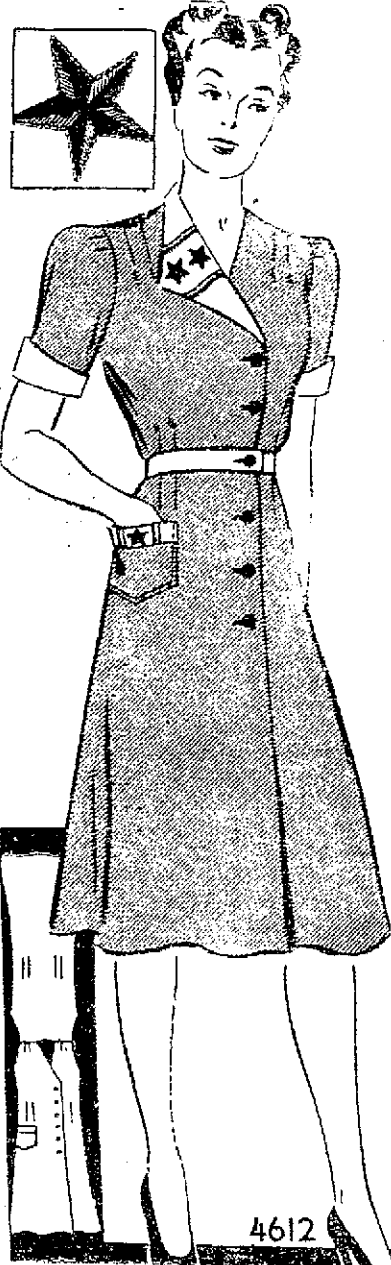

The dinner was held in the Girl Reserve room, where Chinese decorations were used and an Oriental menu served. Shirley Allen played Oriental music while the guests were assembling. For the after dinner program, Patty Knapp told of the dinner's origin and made several important announcements. Interest groups were talked of and Patricia Simmons asked members to bring as soon as possible their Bundles for Britain articles to be displayed at the next meeting. Virginia Parsons spoke of the morning worship services in the First Methodist church. Betsy Thomas gave a summary of the China Fund and the club's part in it. Jeanne Erickson read a Chinese refugee story.

The general committee, Jane Sherwood, Virginia Parsons, Patricia Simmons, Mary Jane Stone, Betsy Thomas and Jeanne Erickson, extends its thanks to the many who assisted, including Mrs. Walter Parsons, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Samuelson, Mrs. Willard Smith, Mrs. Guy McCloskey, for preparing the meal; to the women of the First Presbyterian church for the decorations; to the world fellowship and social service committees of the Girls' Club; and to Freshman Girls' Club members, headed by Mary Cardamone, who ably served.

LEAVES FOR SOUTH

Mrs. H. W. Mitchell, Third avenue, left Wednesday evening for Winter Park, Fla., where she will spend the winter months.

Pattern 4612

BY ANNE ADAMS

Fashion gives three "stars and stripes" this year! A patriotic mood perfectly illustrated by Pattern 4612, which Anne Adams has designed for the American housewife. The optional stars-and-stripes design embroidered on the revers and pocket-band are done from an easy transfer motif, with directions included in the Sewing Instructor. Make them in red and blue on white contrast for a gay patriotic color scheme. And make the revers and pocket-band with cuffs and perhaps even a belt of crisp white. The simple-to-make frock is in just three main pieces (see open diagram) with darts for nice fit. The sleeves may be long or short.

Pattern 4612 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 4½ yards 25 inch fabric and 5-8 yard contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

EXTRA! EXTRA! Everything about the ANNE ADAMS WINTER FASHION BOOK makes extra news! Its vivid pages are filled with styles new as tomorrow's headlines—each in a sure-to-fit pattern.
